ABOUT KMKCP

Principal K. M. Kundnani College of Pharmacy (KMKCP) is one of the premier pharmacy institutions in India, situated in Mumbai, Maharashtra. It was the first technical institution of the Hyderabad (Sind) National Collegiate Board established in 1971. The college is Government aided, permanently affiliated to the University of Mumbai, approved by the Pharmacy Council of India (PCI) and accredited by NBA. This foundational academic framework ensures graduates are well-equipped for diverse career opportunities in the pharmaceutical industry and allied areas of healthcare.

ABOUT SHRI B. V. PATEL EDUCATION TRUST

Shri B.V. Patel Education Trust (BVPET), established in 1974 in memory of Gujarat's First Drug Controller, Shri Bhupendrabhai V. Patel, promotes education in pharmacy and allied sciences. It aims to create skilled professionals for the pharmaceutical industry through initiatives like Hands on Training Program, Workshops, Faculty Development Program and Industry-Oriented initiatives.

The Trust conducts the annual Shri B.V. Patel Essay Competition and hosts a Memorial Lecture at the Indian Pharmaceutical Congress, where winners are awarded. Plans are underway to launch Certificate Courses to enhance industry readiness. Website: www.bvpedustrust.com
